Chino, California

Mrs. Genevieve Newman McCrossen

El Chasqui 1951 is respectfully and affectionately dedicated to Mrs. Genevieve Newman McCrossen, whose untiring efforts and unfailing service have been a constant source of inspiration to Chino High School students for 27 years. As CSF adviser and head of the foreign language department, she has been a vital part of our school life; her spirit will always remain to inspire not only students who knew her but also the teachers who were her colleagues. Our very best wishes accompany her on her retirement.

I am very glad to take this opportunity to greet you in your annual for 1950-51. I sincerely hope that you will enjoy and treasure it as have many of our students in past years.

JOHNSTON E. WALKER,
Principal

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Members of the Board of Education might be called the commanders of the good ship Chino High. Their duty is to help the superintendent select the proper teachers, develop school policy, and budget the school funds. The Board of Educaion is composed of five men elected by the community. The only pay they receive for their time and effort is the satisfaction ol seeing better Chino Schools.

New school bonds were floated this year. The busy commanders were behind this measure, boosting with all their might. The money from the bonds will be used to build one new elementary school, ten new class rooms at El Rancho School, remodel nine class rooms and build a cafeteria at the Richard Gird Primary School, eight rooms at the Richard Gird Elementary School and remodel or replace substandard rooms in the junior and senior high school.

Among other accomplishments of the Board of Trustees for the year 1950-51 are the completion, naming, and dedication of the new Chino High School Memorial Field; a new elementary school on Oak and C Street, called the El Rancho; purchase of new busses; a n d the many paint jobs and repairs around all the schools.

The townspeople and the students are grateful for the time and interest of these public school-spirited men.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year the senior high student council, led by Fred Guillemet, president, has been extremely busy. They have met regularly to discuss and act upon plans concerning the high school and its activities.

Serving on the cabinet with Fred were Charles Leach, vice president; Pat Newton, secretary; Dolores Sartain, business manager and treasurer; Joe Francis, sergeant at arms; and June Langkammerer, who was elected girls' athletic manager, but was replaced later in the year after transferring to Chicago, Illinois, by Kathleen Christy. Barry Johnson filled the position of boys' athletic manager for George Borba who was unable to attend school at the beginning of the year.

This year the advisers of the council were administrators Johnston E. Walker, Mrs. Eldora Belmour, and Gerald Litel.

Fred Guillemet, A. S. B. Prexy

STUDENT SENATE

The petty-officers of the Chino High School ship are the Student Senate members. During the school year 1949-50 the students of Chino High voted to inaugurate and support a plan for more student participation in school government. This was the basis for the Student Senate.

This year is the first complete year that the Student Senate has functioned. Participating on this board are five seniors: Stanley Brooks, Dick Veenstra, Laura Lee Thompson, Jeanette Mitchell and Richard Stevens; four juniors, Beverly Brill, Jim Norman, Peggy Nielsen, and Pat Derho; three sophomores, Dolores Allen, Pat Farr and Charles George; two freshmen, Joe Alcala and Carol Rice.

Senate president is Stanley Brooks. Other officers include Dick Veenstra, vice-president; Laura Lee Thompson, secretary; and Jim Norman, sergeant-at-arms.

The Student Senate has done much this year to improve many things concerning the students. They have conducted successful campus clean-up campaigns. They have gone to bat for the students in every way possible. The Senate was directly responsible for getting permission to hold all school dances in the high school gymnasium.

The students on the Senate are in no way police-officers. That is not their purpose. The organization was established with the aim of serving all students as a headquarters for expressing themselves on school policies and procedures.

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION

Chino's Chapter of the California Scholarship Federation sailed through an active year this year under the able leadership of Mrs. Genevieve McCrossen. A statewide organization, CSF admits as members those students who have earned 10 points based on grades and service to the school. The highest goal, that of life membership, is obtained by novitiate members upon earning membership in this organization for at least six semesters. Members attaining this honor during 1950-51 were Margie Wright, Ivan Jeanne Mayfield, Jerry Kinion, and Miriam Sanchez.

In the first semester, members elected Margie Wright as president; Ivan Jeanne Mayfield as vice president; Helen Ryckman Edwards as secretary-treasurer; Paul Thomas as transportation manager; and Ruth Jones as social chairman, with Marjorie Coblentz and Pat Delgado constituting a social committee.

Second semester members elected Jerry Kinion as president; Dale Morter as vice president; Dolores Allen as secretary-treasurer; Paul Thomas as transportation manager; and Lucille Cadlini as social chairman.

During the first semester members attended a CSF party at the home of Helen Ryckman Edwards; during the second semester they were guests of Chaffey College at its Spring Musical. They attended the annual Southern Region Conference on April 14, and took their holiday from school May 16 to visit Exposition Park.

Robert Grizzle, coach, Donna Adair, Marlene Bennett, Dale Morter.

Marlene Bennett, a junior, brought honor and recognition to Chino High School this year by winning first place in the division finals of the annual oration contest sponsored by the American Legion.

Second place winner in the local contest was Dale Morter, with Donna Adair placing third. Marlene received a gold medal, Dale a silver one, and Donna, a bronze award. All three contestants were juniors. Robert Grizzle, instructor in history and civics, served his first year as oration team coach.

The division trophy, which has been in Barstow's possession, now belongs to Chino High School as a result of Marlene's victory. To keep the trophy, it is necessary to win first place three times. Marilynne Shanks Hein was the first local winner in 1948 with Anne Newman winning again in 1949.

As practice for the contests, this year's team spoke at the Rotary Club, the Methodist Church, the American Legion, and the Toastmasters' Club at the C.I.M.

ORATION TEAM

The Waves of the Chino crew are members of the Girls' League, which includes all girls from grades nine through twelve. They have been very active this year, and following in the footsteps of the 1949-50 League, this year's cabinet has tried to make the 1950-51 Girls' League the best ever.

The girls on the cabinet have conducted two lost-and-found drives with the unclaimed articles going to the Neighborhood House. Each representative was responsible for one Girls' League meeting and food sale.

Girls' Week was celebrated in May. On May 3, the cabinet members took over the jobs of the Principal, Vice-Principal, Registrar, Dean of Girls, Superintendent of Schools and other administrative offices. One of the girls officiated at the assembly on that day. All the girls wore somewhat uniform clothing and ate lunch together on the lawn.

Some of the cabinet members and Mrs. Eldora Belmour, adviser, attended a Girls' League day at Chaffey High School; the League co-sponsored a tea with the F. H. A. in May.

Margie Wright presided during the 1950-51 year, assisted by Peggy Nielsen, vice-president. Ivan Jeanne Mayfield acted as secretary with Joanne Juttner filling the post of treasurer. Beverly Brill was social chairman. Representatives from each grade were Pat Anderson, senior; Rosie Vasquez, junior; Jackie Elrod, sophomore; and Barbara Fullagar, freshman.

Miss Bernice Buckley assisted Mrs. Belmour as an adviser.

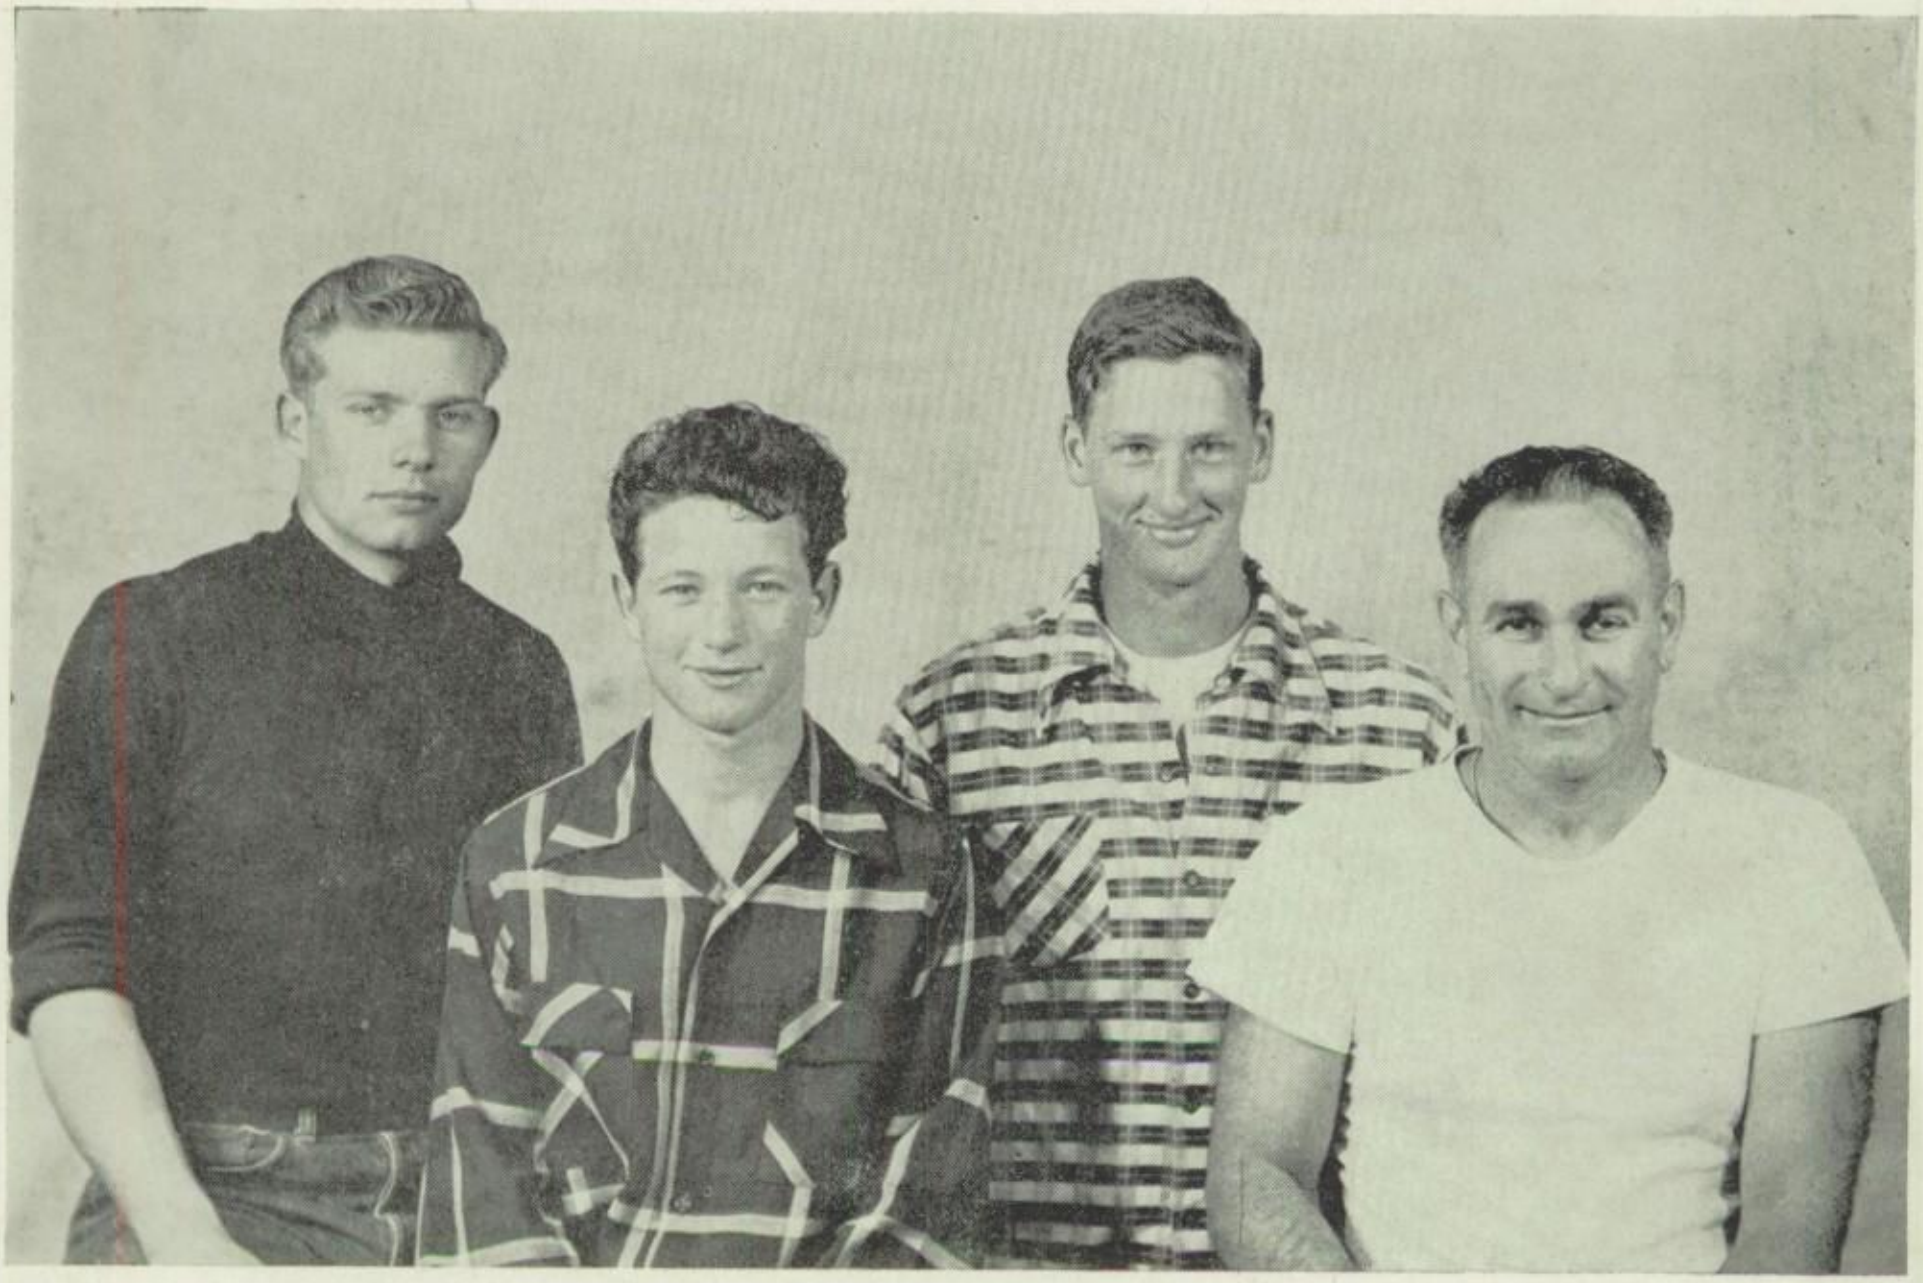
GIRLS' LEAGUE



Forest Beebower, Kenny Nelson, Bob Jordan, Henry Azhderian, adviser.

The Boys' Club, one of the largest of the campus organizations, is made up of all seamen from grades nine through twelve. Good feeling, good sportsmanship, and good citizenship are all emphasized by the crew. Its purpose, along with making better citizens, is to provide wholesome recreation and entertainment for all senior high boys.

The officers of the organization in 1950-51 were Kenny Nelson, president; Forest Beebower, vice president; Bob Jordan, secretary; Glenn Arbuthnot, treasurer; and Roger Cliburn, sergeant-at-arms. Henry Azhderian serves as faculty adviser to the crew.

One of the highlights of the monthly meetings was a talk on sports by Coach Cecil Cushman of Redlands University in February.

The big event of the year was the annual bean feed at which sports events and plenty of chow were the main attractions of the evening.

BOYS' CLUB

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

Miss Grace Hetrick, Lucille Cadlini

This year Chino High School saw the establishment of a new club, entitled the Future Business Leaders of America, organized by girls who are interested in receiving commercial training.

Promoting interest and service to the school and industries, and developing competent and aggressive business leadership are but two of the purposes of the club.

Lucille Cadlini is the commander of the club, with Peggy Nielsen helping her. Ruth Loos as secretary; Vickie Martinez, treasurer; Elvira Gonzales, parliamentarian; and Pat Newton, social chairman, make up the remainder of the crew. Miss Grace Hetrick is the adviser of the group.

Laura Lee Thompson and Miss Ilse Scheffer

One of the most active groups around the Naval Base is the Girls' Athletic Association. All girls who earn at least 50 points are members. Learning to be skillful and to win their games are not the only qualities of a good G.A.A. member. They also strive to keep fit and learn good sportsmanship.

Some of the activities of the G.A.A. this year included the initiation, playdays with other schools, the spring dance and the banquet at which awards are made to the deserving girls.

The Admirals for this year's crew include Laura Lee Thompson, president; Betty Aguerre, vice president; Pat Black, secretary; Helen Ryckman, recording secretary; Pat Newton, secretary; and Peggy Nielsen, treasurer. Miss Ilse Scheffer was adviser and coach for the organization.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Under the able admiralty of Miss Anna Mae Strickler and Mrs. Doris Waller, the Chino crew of the good ship, Future Homemakers of America, became more seaworthy in local marine circles. One hundred girls showed their interests in homemaking by enlisting for a one year tour of duty.

On October 14, the local crew was represented at the State F.H.A. Assembly at Asilomar, California. Joanne Juttner, Beverly Brill, and Miriam Sanchez were the girls who attended as delegates.

Chino was hostess at the Section X-F.H.A. convention on April 14. Miriam Sanchez served as section president and Doreen Wright was section secetary.

Again this year the F. H. A. jointly sponsored the annual Christmas ball with the Paletteers. Members enjoyed a box social with the F.F.A. as one of the main activities of the year. New money making schemes were selling book covers and Christmas cards.

Officers of the local organization were Joanne Juttner, senior, president; Beverly Brill, junior, vice-president; Donna Garnier, senior, secretary; Doreen Wright, senior, treasurer; Dolores Allen, sophomore, parliamentarian; Ruth Fricke, senior, historian; Miriam Sanchez, senior, reporter; and Velma Porter, junior, chairman of the awards committee.

Under the expert steering of John Young and Paul Wade, advisers, the Chino Chapter of the Future Farmers of America sailed through 1950-51 with successful results.

Elected to serve as officers were Charles Leach, president; Carl Carpenter, vice-president; Frank Martinez, second vice-president; Jim Brougher, secretary; Dean Conley, treasurer; Gean Conley, reporter; Louie Abacherli, sentinel. Martinez, Dean and Gean Conley left at the end of the first semester for military service. Roy Womack was elected to fill the spot of second vice-president; John Maxwell was chosen to act as treasurer and Harold Hensley filled the desk of reporter to complete the year. Don Maxwell, Charles Friedley, and Roy Bradley also left the organization to serve in the armed forces.

The chapter raised and harvested five acres of hominy corn and used the proceeds to finance service projects for six members. As other sources of chapter income the Future Farmers sold popcorn and pencils. Chino's Future Farmers aided the Care Plow Package, Community Chest and supported the Help a Chum Drive.

Chino High School's Lettermen's Club serves all varsity sports. The club regulates the wearing and issuing of Letterman sweaters, and at sports events, the crew helps in seating the people and taking tickets. In school, members take charge of keeping the pep assemblies in order.

The Yeomen sponsor a "most improved player" award in the major sports. The member who receives this award is chosen by the players and the coach as the boy who has improved most in this sport. The trophy was originally started to encourage the average player to work harder.

Joe Yzurdiaga was at the helm of this year's ship of Lettermen. Assisting him was a crew composed of Bob Jones, vice- president; Glenn Arbuthnot, secretary- treasurer; and Manuel Galvan and Dick Veenstra, social chairmen. Frank Elder is the faculty adviser.

Artistic seamen make up the Paletteers Club with Mrs. Agnes Stewart at the wheel of the ship. Shirley Lomax headed the crewmen as president; Claudia Nice was second in command as vice-president; Janet Sartain served as treasurer; Carol Fuller as secretary. Charles Real, as historian, recorded the activities of the club.

A weiner roast at the Chino Creek started the calendar of events on September 30. New recruits were acquired and indoctrinated with the ideals of the club. During the year, the Paletteers took part in the Bullock's Scholastic Art Exhibit in Los Angeles. Ray Hooker was awarded a Gold Key Achievement Award for his water color painting. The Paletteers visited the exhibit on March 3. Another art show was viewed by the club on October 25. This display of paintings and sculptures included winning pictures of the Chaffey art competition since 1941 and was held at Chaffey.

Paletteers and F.H.A. co-sponsored the Christmas "Ice Palace" dance. Peggy Nielsen and Kenny Nelson were chosen queen and king to reign at the dance on December 9. The work of the Paletteers graced the eye, while the labor of the F.H.A. entertained the appetite.

PALETTEERS

DRAMA CLUB

One of the newest organizations on board ship at Chino high school is the Drama Club. This club, which is a medium of entertainment, gives various sorts of skits, readings, and plays in the assemblies.

The club is in no way connected with the Drama class. Membership is open to all students who are interested in any form of drama, not only acting, but backstage management, the lights and scenery, and even writing.

During the year, the Drama Club is permitted to take one trip. This year of 1950-51, they visited the Pasadena Community Playhouse, where they were shown the various phases of drama, such as makeup, styling, costumes, enunciation and speech deliverance and demonstrations in different forms of acting.

The club this year was very capably led by Donna Adair, a junior, who also held the position of president last year.

A constitution was adopted under the auspices of Mrs. Barbara Jones, former drama advisor of Chino and Joan Riggs, senior. At the present time, Ray Simpson, English and speech teacher, is the adviser.

TRI-C CLUB

Tri-C is a new club on Chino shore this year. The name Tri-C stands for the Christian Campus Club, which explains the purpose of the group. The club was for everyone who wanted to attend in the senior high.

The club meetings were held in one of the classrooms during the senior lunch hour on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Many different speakers were heard by the club. Some were local speakers. Group singing was also included in the program.

Tri-C's have been started in a number of schools in the last few years. They are sponsored by the Youth for Chrst, which is an undenominational organization. Many special speakers were obtained through the Youth for Christ.

Several special activities were planned during the year, one of them being a banquet held for the members of the Chino and Pomona Tri-C combined. A motion picture, "Decision", was brought to Chino High for the Tri-C and shown in the auditorium. A snow party was also planned this year. Pomona and Chino groups joined together for this activity also.

A representative from the Gideons presented New Testaments to many of the students who wanted them.

Carol Johnson, through the Youth for Christ, attends the meetings as chaplain. Charles Brown, English teacher, is the other adviser for the crew.

BASKETBALL ALL STARS

Girls' sports classes play an important part in the ship life of the crew members at Chino High School. One of the major sports is basketball, which is the first sport played by the girls at the beginning of the school year.

Four teams were chosen from sixth and seventh period sports classes to represent Chino at the G. A. A. basketball playday at Citrus on November 4. Chino came home with one win and three losses.

From the four first teams, girls were chosen to an all-star team. This year three seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, and two freshmen made up the team.

The girls receive one hundred G. A. A. points for making the first team and seventy-five points for acting as a substitute. Any girl who is chosen captain receives twenty-five additional points, and an all-star player is awarded ten points and a felt emblem of a basketball.

Girls who were chosen for the honor of all-star this year included Laura Lee Thompson, Helen Ryckman Edwards, and Jeanette Mitchell, seniors; Peggy Nielsen, Donna Adair, Mary Pecor, and Esther Reichmuth, juniors; Ruth Jones, Ruby Gonzales, and Clara Briones, sophomores; and Mary Weller and Esther Gutierrez, freshmen. Miss Ilse Scheffer is the Chino High School sports and P. E. instructor.

SPEEDBALL ALL-STARS

Meriting distinguished service awards are the Waves on the speedball all-star team. The all-star team is composed of eleven girls chosen from the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade first teams. They are chosen for their outstanding ability.

This year the speedball first teams went to Claremont for playday on January 27. Girls from Corona, Bonita, Citrus, and Puente were also there. The Chino girls came back with two wins, a tie and one loss. The freshman company was beaten by Claremont 5-2. The sophomores whipped Puente 22-2, and the juniors tied with Corona 7-7. The Chino senior division scored 13 points to Bonita's 2 in the last game. Barbara Thompson, Marjorie Coblentz, Marlene Bennett and Pat Anderson were the captains for the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior companies, respectively.

In the inter-class playoffs the juniors came in first. The seniors and sophomores followed, with the freshmen trailing in last. These games were played after the playday at Claremont.

This year the speedball manager was Clara Briones. Miss Ilse Scheffer acted as Commander in Chief.

Miss Ilse Scheffer coached the teams.

Seniors were victorious in the intrasports playoffs by tying the sophs 0-0, defeating the freshmen 4-0, and the juniors 3-1. Eleventh graders won 4-0 in the frosh game, tied the tenth graders 2-2, and lost to the seniors 1-3. Sophomores tied the seniors 0-0 and the eleventh graders 2-2. Ninth graders lost to the juniors 0-4 and seniors 0-4.

Badminton and tennis are popular sports on board ship toward the end of the year. Games are scheduled with other bases in the Tri-County League. This year Chino's Waves were engaged in games with Corona, Puente, Bonita, Claremont and Citrus.

The badminton and tennis teams are chosen by a ladder process. Anyone may try for a higher position on the ladder by challenging a person who is nearer the top. In this way the best players are always toward the top.

Esther Reichmuth and Mary Young are the badminton and tennis managers, respectively. Miss Ilse Scheffer is the Commander in Chief.

SADDLE HORN STAFF

In the latter part of 1948 the Junior High students experimented in editing a newspaper of their own. The experiment proved successful, so in September, 1949, their paper, The Saddle Horn, made its first appearance on deck.

The Saddle Horn is published once each month, with contributions from any students who wish to write for the paper.

Officers of the paper were Sue McCourt, captain and editor, and Fred Smith in charge of mastheads and cartoons. Crew members were Joan Jertberg, Suzanne Mutuberria, Eleanore Younkin, Sonya Woods, Alma Maravigli, Carolyn Valpreda, Pat Murphy, Ruth Melin, Gayle Carlson, Paula Hurst, Janice Jones, and Norma Turner.

Miss Virginia Stong has been at the helm charting the passage through the year 1950-51.
